SAM'L W. KING, Agent.

WEARLEY.

Just in—J. D. Rea, 79 Phillips House, Main street, has received the Ledger, Vanity Fair, and a supply of the Mahony Oysters. He has a full supply of Good Things. Call at 79 Main street.

JUST IN.—"Tee" and "Tam."—Just after the severe battle and Union victory at Antietam, Md., the Philadelphia Press, (a paper which has taken the contract for regulating everything terrestrial and celestial,) stated authoritatively that the word should be pronounced Ante-tam. Thereupon the whole country were authorized and commissioned so to pronounce it. And so the whole world was in a fair way of settling down on this important point—in a huddle, so to speak—when the Baltimore American threw a bombshell into camp by asserting, in the solemn and positive manner, that Antietam is pronounced Ante-tam.

THE OLD FLAG.—We learn that the old 1st Ohio Regiment Flag—the first flag that went out from this city to the war—arrived here last night by Express. It is a glorious old banner, and will be preserved as a relic of the War for the Union.
